

Summer Music Camp

Why? Musical growth in the first few years of instrumental study can be phenomenal. But a long summer with no plans for instrumental performance can hurt this progress.

What? Come enjoy a fun week of music-making and exploration with the Parkland School District Instrumental Music staff. Let us help to reinforce what has been learned during the year while rekindling interest in this great activity for kids. While not a substitution for summer private lessons, instrumental camp can be just the boost that is needed!
