

May 6th is Mental Health Awareness Day.

The Lehigh County Government Center at 17 South 7th Street in Allentown will be observing this day by providing information on mental health seminars, camps, activities and community resources for parents and children. They are open from 8-5 Thursday and Friday. For information please contact, 610-782-3038.