

Literature, Leisure, and Lemonade

Summer 2010

The Parkland School District is pleased to offer Literature, Leisure, and Lemonade, a reading camp for students going to 6th, 7th and 8th grades. The camp will provide reading enrichment and support through interesting and relevant literacy experiences. The emphasis will be on an enjoyment of reading, along with basics such as reading strategies, comprehension, improving fluency, vocabulary development, and literary elements.

Date	June 21 through June 30, 2010
Time	8 am until noon
Location	Springhouse Middle School
Transportation	Students must provide their own transportation to Camp
Cost	$100.00 for eight days

This camp seeks to:

- offer a relaxed environment in which students view reading as a positive experience.
- develop students' reading independence and use of reading strategies.
- instill a lifelong love of literature.
- provide opportunities for the sharing and discussion of self-selected texts.
- encourage critical reading.

Students will receive no grade or course credit for the camp. If you have questions or need more information about the camp, please call Mr. Randy Claroni, Secondary Curriculum Coordinator, at (610) 352-5542. If you are interested in sending your child to this camp, please fill in the form below completely. Include a check for $100.00 made out to Parkland School District, and mail both to:

Parkland School District—Troxell Building
Attention: Randy Claroni
2219 N. Cedar Crest Blvd.
Allentown, PA 18104

..... Detach Here

Reading Camp: 6/21 to 6/30/10

Student's name _____ (Please Print) _____ Grade (as of 9/2010) _____

Parent's name _____ (Please Print) _____ Phone: () _____

Address: _____ City: _____ Zip: _____

Parent/guardian signature _____ email address _____