FAMILY Concert 2019

YOUTH CHOIRS FESTIVAL

Sunday | February 24, 2019 at 3pm

Zoellner Arts Center, Lehigh University

ENCOURAGING...CONNECTING...

These gifted students join The Bach Choir of Bethlehem and Bach Festival Orchestra, under the direction of Greg Funfgeld, to present a program ranging from glorious Bach to works of contemporary composers from around the world. This year's youth choirs include: Bel Canto Youth Chorus (Joy Hirokawa); Emmaus High School Chorale (Rita Cortez); Lehigh Valley Charter High School for the Arts Touring Choir (David Macbeth); and Parkland Chorale, (Frank Anonia). Don't miss these 200 voices as they join together to offer an exquisite program of choral music.

“ Thank you so much for an amazing opportunity to sing with your Choir this past Sunday. It was a crazy experience and I loved every second of it... I've never been a part of such a beautifully sounding Choir...thanks again. ”

— Ysaac, 2016

"We are passionate about choral music – an experience of community unlike any other. An experience that touches hearts and minds in profound ways...and continues to enrich lives immeasurably. —
Greg Funfgeld
Artistic Director and Conductor
