

WHAT IS IT?

Are you interested in public speaking and learning more about the world? If so, then Model UN camp is perfect for you!

Model UN is the chance to simulate what happens at the real United Nations (UN). It gives you the amazing opportunity to discuss and debate real-life issues, come up with your own solutions, and, most importantly, learn from your fellow delegates!

We will be focusing on the procedures and rules of a real Model UN conference, studying international-scale crises, and running our very own Model UN conference at the end of the week.
